THE MOMENT

This is How You Bring People Together

The Hive proved once again it is a school run like no other in the country. On November 9, Building Bridges, a groundbreaking initiative that brings Gray Bees and New Jersey State Troopers together to build trust and understanding between communities of color and law enforcement, held a daylong training exercise on the Property (see story on page 2).

The Hines Test, captured in this photo, was one of several challenges facilitated by Victory Road Leadership Development Group, throughout the day. The exercise tasked two-person teams of kids and state troopers with burning 100 calories as quickly as possible. The teams used ergometers to complete the test and encouraged each other on during the contest, which was held in the open-air Crossfit Box.

CBS Evening News was on hand to capture the events of the day. The segment on Building Bridges aired in December.

GREETINGS

We Stand on the Shoulders of Giants

The resilient St. Benedict's Prep we know and love didn't just happen. Much of the amazing progress detailed in this 2020-2021 Annual Report — soaring enrollment, the Building Bridges program that aims to build trust between young people of color and law enforcement, and $14.3 million raised, the most in School history — was years and even decades in the making.

Unlike most schools, which are run from the top down, St. Benedict's owes a great deal of its success to the students who walk its halls, buy into its traditions, and through action and deed, show younger kids what it means to be a Benedict's man or woman.

Of course, our community is much larger than the kids, faculty and monks who are on the Property every day. The 3,315 alumni, friends, corporations and trustees listed in this report made it possible for St. Benedict's to respond to the devastating impacts of COVID-19 and allowed The Hive to thrive amid very challenging circumstances. In addition to the most money raised on record, 654 new donors joined our giving family and 906 donors increased their commitment to St. Benedict's Prep. Our alumni participation rate increased for the fifth year in a row to 36%, an all-time high and a rate far above our peers. Forever Benedict's, our $100 million campaign, is also closing in on its goal.

Benedict's never quits, even when we're ahead. We must continue to build upon our hard-earned achievements to keep The Hive affordable, provide financial assistance, and create more physical space for an even greater influx of students expected next year.

Know that I am deeply grateful for all you do to keep St. Benedict's vital now and forever. So are the 962 students attending the School today. On an unseasonably hot day in October, 250 kids representing every Division organized themselves into the Benedict's "B" to say thank you. They remind us that we stand on the shoulders of those who came before us. Together, we can work to pass on an even better and stronger institution to those who follow.

Sincerely,

Robert J. DiQuollo '65

Chairman, Board of Trustees

Building Trust, One Evolution at a Time

Morning Convocation on November 9 kicked off the next chapter in Building Bridges, an initiative involving St. Benedict's Prep, the New Jersey State Police and Victory Road Leadership Development Group that seeks to build trust and understanding between communities of color and law enforcement. The pilot program began in July when a group of Gray Bees and state troopers completed a 30-hour WILDE (Wilderness Inspired Leadership Develop Expedition) in Sandyston, N.J.

Now, with seed money from New York-headquartered law firm Davis Polk and the Other Fellow Foundation in Summit, N.J., an immersive challenge called BEAST brought kids and state troopers together again for a day of team training at 520 MLK Boulevard. In this latest evolution, 14 state troopers were paired with students from the Girls and Boys Prep Divisions for a series of mental and physical challenges designed to foster communication and connection. BEAST was facilitated and led by Victory Road; its acronym represents the goals of the evolution: Build relationships, Educate and create Awareness, and accelerate Synergy and Trust.

Since BEAST took place on the Property, state troopers partook in Convocation in full dress uniform, and members of the St. Benedict's community witnessed training contests like the water challenge that took place in the HAB pool and Kim's Game, a memory exercise practiced by the military and intelligence agencies. By the end of the day, more Gray Bees expressed interest in participating in the second BEAST challenge that took place on December 7.

"In this time of division, Building Bridges offers a sign of unity, something everyone in the country needs to see right now," said Headmaster Fr. Edwin Leahy, O.S.B. '63. "Communities that historically have been far apart, can come together to connect and learn from one another."

The BEAST evolution concluded with a debrief involving all participants. The long-term goal is to develop Building Bridges into a national model that can be replicated locally, regionally and nationally. Davis Polk is partnering with us as part of its commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion.

THE SPENCER VESPOLE '09 MEMORIAL CUP

The water polo team held its first Spencer Vespole '09 Memorial Cup on September 11. The competition — a round robin event involving St. Benedict's Prep, Pingry and Germantown Academy — celebrated the life and legacy of Mr. Vespole, who succumbed to cancer in 2019. An All-American water polo player at Bowdoin College, "Spence" joined the St. Benedict's Prep faculty full-time in 2013 and was a beloved teacher, mentor, alumnus and coach.

Literacy is Everyone's Business

There is a reason meteorology students read Isaac's Storm, the gripping story of the 1900 Galveston hurricane, and freshman math classes emphasize arithmetical vocabulary and language. Since 2014, literacy education has been a core focus of Student Performance Objectives at St. Benedict's Prep.

"Critical reading and writing touch every academic discipline," said Associate Headmaster for Academics Michelle Tuorto H '16. The Middle States reaccreditation process provides the vehicle for St. Benedict's faculty to develop new courses, like the required Freshman Writing Seminar, as well as integrate literacy education into every class. "Students need to see it everywhere," explained Mrs. Tuorto. "That's been a big shift for us. Everyone has a role in developing a culture of reading and writing."

That's reflected in the Professional Learning Community (PLC), which has grown from six faculty members to two dozen teachers in the Elementary and Middle Divisions. A new PLC, which meets regularly to share expertise, develop interventions and monitor progress, was established in the Prep Divisions this year. "The PLC is how we learn to become better teachers of reading and writing," Mrs. Tuorto added. Middle and Prep Division students sat for the MAP (Measures of Academic Progress) tests in October to measure progress in improving students' critical reading and writing skills. The results will be used to counsel individual students on strengths and areas for improvement and will inform instruction as St. Benedict's heads into its next reaccreditation cycle.

"Everyone has a role in developing a culture of reading and writing."

ST. BENEDICT'S IN THE NEWS, AGAIN

The Hive continues to be a source of inspiration for national news outlets and magazines. In May, The New York Times ran an extensive profile on the return to The Trail amid COVID-19. The story appeared in print and online and an estimated 257,000 people read or saw the photo essay.

St. Benedict's Prep graced the cover of the September 2021 issue of America magazine with the story written by Benedict's own religion teacher, Stephen G. Adubato.

The insightful article connected the Benedictine monks' commitment to stability to the success of St. Benedict's today. The progress and growth of the crew program also drew attention from numerous media outlets. Head Coach Craig White '04 and senior oarsmen appeared in segments for "Good Day New York" on FOX 5 New York, "The Upside" on The Today Show online, News 12 New Jersey, and TAPINTO NEWARK.

FIRST SEASON IN THE BOOKS FOR GRAY BEE VOLLEYBALL

Gray Bees showed the grit and tenacity Benedict's athletics built its reputation on during their inaugural varsity volleyball season. Led by Head Coach Nia Grant, a professional volleyball player and two-time NCAA champion at Penn State University, the team concluded its first season on October 27.

The team's first varsity victory, a defeat of Blair Academy in straight sets, was pivotal, according to Coach Grant. "It showed we were capable of winning," she stated. Director of Athletics Tom Leahy '77 is excited about the program's prospects. "Our teams have a long tradition of success, and we have the same expectations for our new girls teams as our longstanding boys programs. You need coaches who can bring student-athletes along to meet those expectations. Clearly, Nia Grant is doing that for girls volleyball."

For now, Coach Grant is taking a break from professional competition. The Ohio native and world traveler recently moved to Bloomfield, N.J. "This was my first opportunity coaching a high school team," she said. "I'm glad it was with St. Benedict's. I really like how the School runs their athletic programs."

OUR MISSION KEEPS

The Hive is back and firing on all cylinders thanks to the generosity of the St. Benedict's Prep community.

All kids can thrive at The Hive.

Enrollment Jumps 28% in Five Years

Mario Gallo and Analisa Branco have been fielding non-stop inquiries for admission to St. Benedict's Prep throughout the fall. With enrollment reaching 962 students during Fall Term, a 28% increase over the 750 enrolled in 2017, Mr. Gallo, Director of Admissions, and Ms. Branco, Associate Director of Admissions, are managing wait lists in multiple grades.

The new Girls Prep Division, which began with 85 young women last year and grew to 125 in 2021-22, certainly accounts for a big chunk of growth. Yet demand has also escalated in the Elementary and Middle Divisions with growing awareness that St. Benedict's is a K-12 Catholic school. "People are seeing us as a 'one-stop shop' where all of their kids can thrive," said Mr. Gallo. "We're also seeing a phenomenon of families wanting to ensure a place in the Prep Division by entering Benedict's in either the Middle Division, which now starts at sixth grade, or even earlier in the Elementary Division."

This contradicts the general trend among urban Catholic schools experiencing stagnant or declining enrollment. According to Mr. Gallo, alumni and friends are a big part of The Hive's exploding growth. "Their support is priceless because their word-of-mouth marketing helps us reach pockets of communities that we have no access to," he explained. "Alums create a sense of legacy, too. Kids who come here learn a fundamental thing from Day One. St. Benedict's doesn't start and end with who is on the Property. It's much bigger than us."

To accommodate the growth, offices were relocated and four new classrooms were constructed on the first floor of Bishop Joseph Francis Hall and two classrooms were added to Cawley Hall. Bishop Francis is the academic home base for the majority of freshmen in the Boys Prep Division. "It's new and fresh," said Grace Lenahan, who teaches religion to freshmen boys in Bishop Francis. Faculty are adjusting to the new classrooms and the School created a tent on the Lower Court that can be reserved for outdoor classes. The influx of students, "is palpable," said Ms. Lenahan. St. Benedict's is actively planning to enhance space and capacity to accommodate more students on the Property.

"Stay and Build" artwork created by one Gray Bee for this year's Interdisciplinary Project.

With 'Stay and Build,' Past and Present Converge

Interdisciplinary Projects are an academic hallmark at St. Benedict's Prep because the artwork, performances and research produced all stem from a timely theme relevant to kids' lives. In 2018, the

GROWING

Sesquicentennial inspired an original musical production and poster presentations on scientific discoveries dating back to 1868, the year St. Benedict's was founded. In 2020, students explored the 50-year Hispanic and Latino legacy of The Hive in a range of academic disciplines.

This year's theme, "Stay and Build: Remember the Past, Invent the Future," is rooted in St. Benedict's history while viewing the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic as an occasion for the institution to innovate and improve. Chair of the Fine Arts Department Pamela Wye-Hunsinger H'18 said the theme came together after Headmaster Fr. Edwin Leahy, O.S.B. '63 described the return to the Property post quarantine as, "the biggest opportunity to re-envision St. Benedict's since 1972 when the School closed."

In a serendipitous email, Fr. Augustine Curley, O.S.B. '74 shared archival material that cemented the idea. In the mid-1950s Newark was losing residents to the suburbs. During this challenging time, the Benedictine monks of Newark Abbey doubled down. The "Benedict's Builds with Newark" campaign created Cawley Hall in 1959 and signified the School's commitment to Newark and to elevating its own arts programs.

"Stay and Build' honors the vows of the monks in this entire endeavor," Ms. Wye-Hunsinger explained. "It reflects the commitment to stability. There are lot of parallels to now. It will be an opportunity to work with students to reclaim important values and traditions, as well as dream up ways we can be better."

Visual arts students have been exploring the theme since Summer Phase. The projects are ingenious, as well as practical. One recent assignment tasked students with identifying a St. Benedict's phrase (a motto, line of prayer or affirmation, or song lyric), which they paired with a self-portrait and a personal interpretation of the phrase. In addition to artistic skill building, the finished pieces will be hung in the cafeteria, visually representing important tenets of a St. Benedict's education. That is needed now. "After a year of virtual learning, a lot of kids came into Benedict's unaware of traditions," said Ms. Wye-Hunsinger. "These pieces will actually be talking to kids in the cafeteria."

The culminating event for the Interdisciplinary Project, which showcases the work produced by students across multiple disciplines, will be held in March 2022. It will be the first schoolwide celebration since 2019. The showcase was canceled in 2020 when The Hive pivoted to remote learning on March 13.

Troi Slade '22, Marie-Rosa Jeudy '22, Joseph Jumbo '22, Geovanni Lopez '22 and Jaden Oates '22

Congratulate These Senior Gray Bees

Five Gray Bees were named QuestBridge National College Match Finalists, the first time St. Benedict's Prep has had this many seniors achieve the prestigious feat. Troi Slade '22, Marie-Rosa Jeudy '22, Geovanni Lopez '22, Jaden Oates '22 and Joseph Jumbo '22 were among the 6,312 seniors selected from more than 16,500 applicants nationwide on October 19. "It's unprecedented for us," said Dean of College Placement and Seniors Didier Jean-Baptiste '86, noting that this is the sixth year St. Benedict's has participated in the program that offers high-achieving students from low-income backgrounds an entrée to some of the most competitive colleges in the country. "The fact that five finalists came from a school of our size, with 160 seniors, is pretty impressive."

As QuestBridge National College Match Finalists, the students can apply early decision to up to 12 of their top ranked schools. If admitted to a QuestBridge partner school, which includes Yale University, MIT, University of Notre Dame and others, they will receive a full four-year scholarship that covers tuition, room and board, books and other college-related expenses.

Over the summer, four of the seniors, Troi, Marie-Rosa, Geovanni and Jaden, participated in the QuestBridge College Prep Scholars Program, which accepted only 26% of applicants this year. Mr. Jean-Baptiste believes the initiative demonstrated by St. Benedict's students in online networking events, coupled with excellent faculty recommendations and outstanding academic performance, "set them up to do a good job with the National College Match application process." Finalists learn if they match with a top choice school in December.

Since Summer Phase, the College Guidance team has worked with 161 seniors and post-graduates on all aspects of the application process, from essay writing to campus visits and financial aid. The process is still firmly focused on long-term success, which according to Mr. Jean-Baptiste is, "Matching our students with a best-fit college where they can thrive academically and receive enough financial support to persist and earn their degree."

It's Time to Pay it Forward

It didn't take long for Mike Fazio to get on board with the Benedict's way of doing things. Now in his eighth year as Chief Advancement Officer, he discusses the role of fundraiser-in-chief and the progress achieved on his watch.

What did you know about St. Benedict's Prep before becoming Chief Advancement Officer in 2014?

I knew St. Benedict's was a strong Catholic school with a storied tradition. But frankly, there are a lot of schools out there with rigorous academic programs and special histories. I made a lot of assumptions. Little did I know I was walking into something completely different. At first, St. Benedict's took a little bit of getting used to. Now, I can't imagine a school run any other way.

Why is that?

We put the onus on the kids to figure things out. The students run the show and we work for them. My email box was filled this morning with messages from kids changing the schedule and notifying parents of different developments. That is a brilliant piece of the puzzle here. Can you imagine a public school trying this? I can't even imagine most Catholic schools putting kids in charge this way.

Even on the most ordinary of days, incredible things happen in the middle of Newark. We had Mass on the field outdoors recently, and there was work being done on the Verizon building adjacent to the Property. The Verizon guys stopped working and listened to the Mass, the music, and to Fr. Edwin. That doesn't happen everywhere, but that kind of connectedness happens here all the time.

How do you view your role in terms of fostering the interconnectedness of the St. Benedict's Prep community?

I feel my primary job as Chief Advancement Officer is to make sure that those Benedict's traditions and formative experiences continue

BENEDICT'S
The Campaign for St. Benedict's Preparatory School

Nearing the Finish Line

in perpetuity. When we travel around the country, what we hear the most from people is, 'What are the dates for The Trail this year? What's happening with Freshman Overnight? How's the counseling program going?' It's what I call the Benedict's Difference. These experiences formed our graduates and I feel I have a duty to ensure it continues forever.

"My email box was filled this morning with messages from kids changing the schedule and notifying parents of different developments. That is a brilliant piece of the puzzle here."

Speaking of forever, can you describe where Forever Benedict's, the $100 million campaign, stands right now?

We are at the goal line thanks to the generosity of nearly 10,000 donors. We've secured well over $90 million so far. Forever Benedict's is the biggest, most ambitious campaign in our history and, as a result, we've been able to keep the place going and expand the endowment so St. Benedict's can be here always. That was the whole point when we envisioned this thing a few years ago, and by the grace of God, we're close to hitting the mark. I can't wait to celebrate the conclusion of the effort at our Annual Scholarship Gala in May – but we aren't done yet.

What does $100 million mean to a school like St. Benedict's?

It's added a lot of stability to our finances. We offer more than $5 million in financial aid every year. And that number continues to grow, certainly with the addition of the Girls Prep Division and nearly 1,000 kids here.

The biggest thing Forever Benedict's did was allow us to tell the story about why it's so important to give back to the School. We've always had a strong track record of alumni giving, but over the last seven years, it's climbed to the point where St. Benedict's is by far the best in the state, and better than most colleges and universities in terms of alumni participation. Last year, we raised over $14 million, the most ever. That's a testament to the alumni and donors who believe in this place and its mission.

Once the campaign concludes, what will St. Benedict's need to move forward?

Continuing to grow the endowment is absolutely vital. We've made progress, but we need to get the endowment to the point where it provides enough each year so that the fundraising lift for operations isn't as great. The physical plant is something we're looking closely at as well. The girls have planted their flag here and are going to need additional space, and enrollment overall is growing. We're bursting at the seams and have 100-year-old buildings that need to be considered.

Facilities is a big piece of whatever comes next.

Fundraising at Benedict's is never over. We need our current alumni and donors to continue, and we need alums who have not been supporting us to start doing so. Because every Gray Bee is a beneficiary of those that came before them. Every single one. Even if their parents paid full tuition, they were still getting help because what we charge for tuition doesn't cover the full cost. It's time to pay it forward.

The Benedict's community really values events where they get to see one another in person. What does that look like going forward?

It depends on how COVID-19 looks as we head into 2022. We had a great event in Boston in October, held mostly outdoors, and I would say you're going to be seeing a lot more of us this spring. We'll be in the Midwest, Washington D.C., Atlanta and certainly Florida. I can't wait.

So, you'll be back on the road with Fr. Ed?

He and I talk almost every day about when we're going to hit the road again. I learn a lot on these trips because he tells stories about the Benedict's of yesterday, as well as today. It truly is a privilege and a blessing to get that bird's eye view and travel with him. We share a lot of laughs. We also always get lost. But that's usually my fault because we're talking so much, I miss an exit.

Alumni are obviously the core foundation of support, but St. Benedict's also gets unexpected gifts from complete strangers with stunning regularity. What do you make of that?

Fr. Ed would say it's the Holy Spirit. He's right, but I believe there's more at play. Education – in particular the brand we offer here – is the cure for most of society's issues. So, we work hard at telling our story. The more word spreads about what's happening on MLK Boulevard, the luckier we seem to get. People see a school like ours and they don't see color or religion or economic status. They just see kids and think, 'This is what education should be.' At a time when a sense of community seems lost in our country, voilà!, there it is – right in the middle of Newark, New Jersey. When donors see the grit, the leadership and the accountability that is developed here, in addition to the academic side of things, they realize the country could use more Benedict's kids. B

Reasons to celebrate and improve our alumni participation rate of 36%

You may have seen the alumni participation goal for the Annual Fund on social media, eBuzz and other communication from St. Benedict's Prep. But what does the 36% (alumni participation rate in FY21) or 37% (alumni participation goal for FY22) figure mean?

For starters, it's important to acknowledge that the philanthropic participation of St. Benedict's alumni far exceeds the rate of peer institutions. According to recent data from the New Jersey Association of Independent Schools (NJAIS), the average alumni participation rate is just 8%. St. Benedict's also surveyed Catholic prep and private schools in the vicinity and discovered the average rate of alumni giving is 19%. In higher education, the rate is 8% for all schools, 18% for private schools, and the trend is only moving downward.

"Our numbers are definitely an accomplishment," said Director of Annual Giving Lauren Alampi. "Our robust alumni participation rate is something we should celebrate and be proud of. At the same time, we need to keep improving."

St. Benedict's is not as tuition dependent as other schools. A Benedict's education remains more affordable because people give at all levels. "One of the first questions we're asked when we meet with a new foundation or major donor is, 'What percentage of alumni give to St. Benedict's?'" said Mrs. Alampi. "When considering their own investments, they want to support institutions that others are supporting too. Getting our alumni participation to 37% and higher is a sign of strength that inspires even greater giving."

OMNES PARITER SOCIETY

The Omnes Pariter Society, our planned giving society, recognizes alumni and friends who have told us of their intention to make a gift to St. Benedict's through their will or estate plan. The phrase "omnes pariter" comes from the Rule of St. Benedict. Meaning "all together" it describes St. Benedict's ideal of community and connectedness and conveys the donor's permanent support of our School.

Monte Cassino Society

Monte Cassino, the rocky hill near Rome, Italy, and site of St. Benedict of Nursia's first monastery, is the physical foundation upon which the Benedictine Order was built. The Monte Cassino Society is a core group of alumni and friends who serve as the financial foundation of St. Benedict's Preparatory School. These generous believers have demonstrated an admirable dedication to the School's mission and students by making an investment of $1,000 or more. Recent graduates (last 15 years) who invested at specific levels are recognized as Associate Members.

NORTH END BOY

INNOCENCE AND EXPERIENCE
AMID THE SEVEN WONDERS OF ELIZABETH, NEW JERSEY

Set in Elizabeth and Newark during 1978, NORTH END BOY is a fast-paced memoir about seven young friends coming of age against a backdrop of urban crime, abandoned factories, failed wars and political corruption. It is a meditation on urban America, as seen through the eyes of a young man with immigrant sensibilities and working-class roots.

All proceeds from the sale of NORTH END BOY will be donated to St. Benedict's Prep, which is featured in the book.

GIFTS BY CLASS

We are grateful to our alumni for their generosity and continuous support. Annual Giving totals for each class include cash received, as well as gifts- and services-in-kind. Donors who made a pledge, but not a payment toward it, in FY21 are listed with their class and counted in Class Participation percentages. However, pledge amounts are not counted in Annual Giving totals to avoid duplicate counting in the subsequent years when payment is received. Honorary alumni are listed with their class, but are not counted in Participation or Annual Giving totals. Thank you.

SUSTAIN TRADITION

Year in, year out, traditions like The Trail prove something important to first-year students: they have all that it takes to be successful in school and in life. Become a St. Benedict's Sustainer to help ensure these traditions endure. By making a recurring gift to the Annual Fund on a monthly or quarterly basis, Sustainers provide a dependable source of support and receive added recognition and benefits from St. Benedict's. # BE COUNTED!

Everything you read in this Annual Report was made possible, in part, by the generous backing of our Annual Fund donors. Your gift helps supplement tuition fees to do everything from paying faculty salaries to providing financial aid, funding athletic programs and other extracurricular activities.

Be counted by making a gift to the Annual Fund by December 31!

To make a gift, visit www.sbp.org/AlwaysForward.
To learn more about our Advancement efforts here at The Hive, contact Senior Director of Advancement John Huss '81 at (973) 792-5753 or jhuss@sbp.org.
